

Lost earring

Date: _____

Listen to the audio and complete the script.

ready – out - we – look – feet - easy - hand – me – lost - worry

- Speaker 1: Deary, I've got to tell you something.
Speaker 2: Okay, fire away. Hand me my socks.
Speaker 1: Here. Look you remember that movie 1) _____ went to last night?
Speaker 2: Remember? Boy, I haven't seen it rain like that since the next day after I returned Dr. Gamble's umbrella. Why did you ask 2) _____?
Speaker 1: Well, on the way home... Oh, yes. Here's your shoes, deary.
Speaker 2: Your 3) _____ is shaking, kiddo. What you're so nervous about?
Speaker 1: Well, I don't quite know how to tell you this. I told Mabel, too, because it wasn't going to be 4) _____.
Speaker 2: Well, now whatever's on your mind, you just tell old Dad. Come on, out with it. I ain't going to scold you.
Speaker 1: Well, what would you say if I told you I 5) _____ an earring on the way home?
Speaker 2: I'd say so what? You got a bush of earrings.
Speaker 1: But this is one from that set you gave me for our 10th anniversary with the nearly diamonds in it.
Speaker 2: Oh, my gosh, that one. Where did you lose it?
Speaker 1: Well, I had it in the movie and I had it in the car on the way home.
Speaker 2: And by a very simple process of illumination, you must have lost it coming up the front walk. That's easy. Did you take a 6) _____ outside this morning?
Speaker 1: Yes, I did, but...
Speaker 2: You just haven't got the sharp clear eye old dad's got, Tootsie. I'll find it for you, don't you 7) _____.
Speaker 1: But, McGee.
Speaker 2: Don't threaten. I'll find it. I won't quit to look until I do. And that's a promise.
Speaker 1: Scout's honor?
Speaker 2: Eagle troupe.
Speaker 1: And there's the sign. Good. I'll go get your breakfast 8) _____.
Speaker 2: I'll run outside right now and take a look around before we eat. I'll go over that front sidewalk with a fine toothcomb till I find that earring. Because when I promise to do something...
Speaker 2: Molly.
Speaker 1: Did you call me, deary?
Speaker 1: Did you see what's 9) _____ there?
Speaker 2: Yes, sweetheart. That's why I was afraid to tell you.
Speaker 1: Woo. Better fix a big breakfast while I get out the snow shovel. That snow must be three 10) _____ deep.

Lost earring

Date: _____

Listen to the audio and complete the script.

ready – out - we – look – feet - easy - hand – me – lost - worry

- Speaker 1: Deary, I've got to tell you something.
Speaker 2: Okay, fire away. Hand me my socks.
Speaker 1: Here. Look you remember that movie 1) _____ went to last night?
Speaker 2: Remember? Boy, I haven't seen it rain like that since the next day after I returned Dr. Gamble's umbrella. Why did you ask 2) _____?
Speaker 1: Well, on the way home... Oh, yes. Here's your shoes, deary.
Speaker 2: Your 3) _____ is shaking, kiddo. What you're so nervous about?
Speaker 1: Well, I don't quite know how to tell you this. I told Mabel, too, because it wasn't going to be 4) _____.
Speaker 2: Well, now whatever's on your mind, you just tell old Dad. Come on, out with it. I ain't going to scold you.
Speaker 1: Well, what would you say if I told you I 5) _____ an earring on the way home?
Speaker 2: I'd say so what? You got a bush of earrings.
Speaker 1: But this is one from that set you gave me for our 10th anniversary with the nearly diamonds in it.
Speaker 2: Oh, my gosh, that one. Where did you lose it?
Speaker 1: Well, I had it in the movie and I had it in the car on the way home.
Speaker 2: And by a very simple process of illumination, you must have lost it coming up the front walk. That's easy. Did you take a 6) _____ outside this morning?
Speaker 1: Yes, I did, but...
Speaker 2: You just haven't got the sharp clear eye old dad's got, Tootsie. I'll find it for you, don't you 7) _____.
Speaker 1: But, McGee.
Speaker 2: Don't threaten. I'll find it. I won't quit to look until I do. And that's a promise.
Speaker 1: Scout's honor?
Speaker 2: Eagle troupe.
Speaker 1: And there's the sign. Good. I'll go get your breakfast 8) _____.
Speaker 2: I'll run outside right now and take a look around before we eat. I'll go over that front sidewalk with a fine toothcomb till I find that earring. Because when I promise to do something...
Speaker 2: Molly.
Speaker 1: Did you call me, deary?
Speaker 1: Did you see what's 9) _____ there?
Speaker 2: Yes, sweetheart. That's why I was afraid to tell you.
Speaker 1: Woo. Better fix a big breakfast while I get out the snow shovel. That snow must be three 10) _____ deep.