

Vocabulary - Poems

Match the vocabulary with the descriptions.

title – verse - stanza – poet – theme – space – capital letter – mood – poem - rhyme scheme

- 1. A _____ is a person who writes poems.
2. The _____ is the name of the poem.
3. A _____ is a single line of text from left to right.
4. A _____ is a group of lines.
5. The _____ is what the poem is all about.
6. A _____ is left between each stanza.
7. The _____ is a shared feeling within the poem.
8. A _____ is used to mark the beginning of a verse.
9. The _____ is the pattern of rhymes within the poem.
10. A _____ is a piece of writing in which the words are arranged in separate lines, often ending in rhyme.

Vocabulary - Poems

Match the vocabulary with the descriptions.

title – verse - stanza – poet – theme – space – capital letter – mood – poem - rhyme scheme

- 1. A _____ is a person who writes poems.
2. The _____ is the name of the poem.
3. A _____ is a single line of text from left to right.
4. A _____ is a group of lines.
5. The _____ is what the poem is all about.
6. A _____ is left between each stanza.
7. The _____ is a shared feeling within the poem.
8. A _____ is used to mark the beginning of a verse.
9. The _____ is the pattern of rhymes within the poem.
10. A _____ is a piece of writing in which the words are arranged in separate lines, often ending in rhyme.

Vocabulary - Poems

Match the vocabulary with the descriptions.

title – verse - stanza – poet – theme – space – capital letter – mood – poem - rhyme scheme

- 1. A _____ is a person who writes poems.
2. The _____ is the name of the poem.
3. A _____ is a single line of text from left to right.
4. A _____ is a group of lines.
5. The _____ is what the poem is all about.
6. A _____ is left between each stanza.
7. The _____ is a shared feeling within the poem.
8. A _____ is used to mark the beginning of a verse.
9. The _____ is the pattern of rhymes within the poem.
10. A _____ is a piece of writing in which the words are arranged in separate lines, often ending in rhyme.

Vocabulary - Poems

Match the vocabulary with the descriptions.

title – verse - stanza – poet – theme – space – capital letter – mood – poem - rhyme scheme

- 1. A _____ is a person who writes poems.
2. The _____ is the name of the poem.
3. A _____ is a single line of text from left to right.
4. A _____ is a group of lines.
5. The _____ is what the poem is all about.
6. A _____ is left between each stanza.
7. The _____ is a shared feeling within the poem.
8. A _____ is used to mark the beginning of a verse.
9. The _____ is the pattern of rhymes within the poem.
10. A _____ is a piece of writing in which the words are arranged in separate lines, often ending in rhyme.