

Secondary school
Second Grade – Unit 5
Improvised monologues

Exercises for the students

Achievement 2: Identify topics for monologues

Exercise 2: Topics for monologues

Match (→) the extracts with the topics

- | | |
|---|------------------|
| 1. No! Let me speak. I listened to you, now you are going to hear what I have to say. You're controlling. You're a mind manipulator. You have a terrible temper. You need to hear my words and find the strength to make inner changes... or I'm leaving you. | a) Smart girl |
| 2. I know I agreed to take on the responsibility but this is insane. I'm just a kid. You know, there are video games and TV and my friends... I have a life. It's like all I do is walk the dog around. | b) My pet |
| 3. She was going on about planets, economics, ancient Egyptian culture and architecture and I couldn't say anything. I had absolutely nothing. | c) Relationships |