

Definitions - Theater

Match the vocabulary words with their definitions.

setting – dialogue - scene – props
- protagonist – antagonist – plot –
conflict – act - costume

- 1. _____
The main character or leading figure in a theatrical play.
- 2. _____
The time and place in which a play's events occur.
- 3. _____
A major division within a play, often consisting of multiple scenes.
- 4. _____
Objects used by actors during a play to enhance the setting or action.
- 5. _____
The sequence of events in a play, including exposition, rising action, climax, falling action, and resolution.
- 6. _____
Clothing worn by actors to portray characters in a play.
- 7. _____
A smaller division within an act, representing a specific time and place.
- 8. _____
The central problem or struggle between characters or forces in a play.
- 9. _____
The character or force that opposes the protagonist.
- 10. _____
The spoken conversation between characters in a play.

Definitions - Theater

Match the vocabulary words with their definitions.

setting – dialogue - scene – props
- protagonist – antagonist – plot –
conflict – act - costume

- 1. _____
The main character or leading figure in a theatrical play.
- 2. _____
The time and place in which a play's events occur.
- 3. _____
A major division within a play, often consisting of multiple scenes.
- 4. _____
Objects used by actors during a play to enhance the setting or action.
- 5. _____
The sequence of events in a play, including exposition, rising action, climax, falling action, and resolution.
- 6. _____
Clothing worn by actors to portray characters in a play.
- 7. _____
A smaller division within an act, representing a specific time and place.
- 8. _____
The central problem or struggle between characters or forces in a play.
- 9. _____
The character or force that opposes the protagonist.
- 10. _____
The spoken conversation between characters in a play.

Definitions - Theater

Match the vocabulary words with their definitions.

setting – dialogue - scene – props
- protagonist – antagonist – plot –
conflict – act - costume

- 1. _____
The main character or leading figure in a theatrical play.
- 2. _____
The time and place in which a play's events occur.
- 3. _____
A major division within a play, often consisting of multiple scenes.
- 4. _____
Objects used by actors during a play to enhance the setting or action.
- 5. _____
The sequence of events in a play, including exposition, rising action, climax, falling action, and resolution.
- 6. _____
Clothing worn by actors to portray characters in a play.
- 7. _____
A smaller division within an act, representing a specific time and place.
- 8. _____
The central problem or struggle between characters or forces in a play.
- 9. _____
The character or force that opposes the protagonist.
- 10. _____
The spoken conversation between characters in a play.

Definitions - Theater

Match the vocabulary words with their definitions.

setting – dialogue - scene – props
- protagonist – antagonist – plot –
conflict – act - costume

- 1. _____
The main character or leading figure in a theatrical play.
- 2. _____
The time and place in which a play's events occur.
- 3. _____
A major division within a play, often consisting of multiple scenes.
- 4. _____
Objects used by actors during a play to enhance the setting or action.
- 5. _____
The sequence of events in a play, including exposition, rising action, climax, falling action, and resolution.
- 6. _____
Clothing worn by actors to portray characters in a play.
- 7. _____
A smaller division within an act, representing a specific time and place.
- 8. _____
The central problem or struggle between characters or forces in a play.
- 9. _____
The character or force that opposes the protagonist.
- 10. _____
The spoken conversation between characters in a play.