

Mexico's independence heroes Date: _____

Complete the text with the following verbs.

gave – inspired - was – continued – are - were –
became – risked – wanted - remind

The heroes of Mexico's independence showed great courage and love for their country. One of these heroes is Miguel Hidalgo. He 1) _____ a priest who started the fight for independence in 1810. Hidalgo gave a famous speech called "El Grito de Dolores" and 2) _____ many people to join the fight.

Another hero is José María Morelos. He was also a priest and 3) _____ the fight after Hidalgo. Morelos was very brave and led many battles. He wanted Mexico to be free and equal for everyone.

A noble woman in this fight was Josefa Ortiz de Domínguez. She helped the independence movement by sharing important information with the leaders. She was very brave and 4) _____ her life to help Mexico.

Vicente Guerrero was another important hero. He was a strong and determined leader who never 5) _____ up. Guerrero helped to finally win independence in 1821. He 6) _____ the second president of Mexico and worked to make the country better.

These heroes showed many noble qualities. They 7) _____ brave, determined, and loved their country. They 8) _____ a better life for all Mexicans. Their achievements are very important. Thanks to their efforts, Mexico became an independent country. Their patriotism and courage inspire us today.

The heroes of Mexico's independence 9) _____ us of the importance of fighting for freedom and justice. They 10) _____ celebrated every year on September 16th, Mexico's Independence Day. Their legacy lives on, showing us the value of courage and love for our country.

Mexico's independence heroes Date: _____

Complete the text with the following verbs.

gave – inspired - was – continued – are - were –
became – risked – wanted - remind

The heroes of Mexico's independence showed great courage and love for their country. One of these heroes is Miguel Hidalgo. He 1) _____ a priest who started the fight for independence in 1810. Hidalgo gave a famous speech called "El Grito de Dolores" and 2) _____ many people to join the fight.

Another hero is José María Morelos. He was also a priest and 3) _____ the fight after Hidalgo. Morelos was very brave and led many battles. He wanted Mexico to be free and equal for everyone.

A noble woman in this fight was Josefa Ortiz de Domínguez. She helped the independence movement by sharing important information with the leaders. She was very brave and 4) _____ her life to help Mexico.

Vicente Guerrero was another important hero. He was a strong and determined leader who never 5) _____ up. Guerrero helped to finally win independence in 1821. He 6) _____ the second president of Mexico and worked to make the country better.

These heroes showed many noble qualities. They 7) _____ brave, determined, and loved their country. They 8) _____ a better life for all Mexicans. Their achievements are very important. Thanks to their efforts, Mexico became an independent country. Their patriotism and courage inspire us today.

The heroes of Mexico's independence 9) _____ us of the importance of fighting for freedom and justice. They 10) _____ celebrated every year on September 16th, Mexico's Independence Day. Their legacy lives on, showing us the value of courage and love for our country.