

Introduction of monologue

Date: _____

Complete the information with the words from the box.

tragic – one - laugh - thinking - speech – aloud – question – dialogue – himself – serious

Monologue

Definition

Monologue is an extended 1) _____ by one person.

Etymology

Mono, which means 2) _____, single or alone.
Logos, which means word, reason or plan.

Purpose

To express thought and ideas 3) _____.

Importance

It gives the audience or other characters access to what a particular character is 4) _____.

Famous monologue

“To be or not to be, that is the 5) _____”
From “Hamlet”
by William Shakespeare.

Antonym

6) _____.

Types of monologues

A. Soliloquy

A speech that a character gives to 7) _____.

B. Dramatic

It expresses character’s inner thoughts, ideas and feelings on a 8) _____ or painful topic.

C. Interior / Narrative

It’s a narrative technique that shows the character’s thoughts, so that the audience experience his internal thoughts. It can be funny or 9) _____.

D. Stand-up comedy

A comical speech that makes the audience 10) _____.

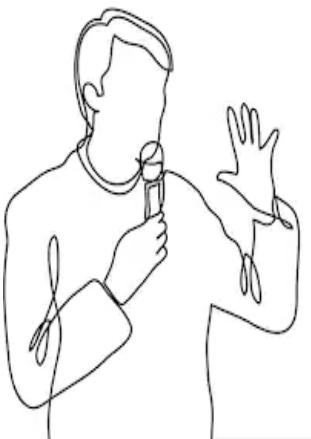

Introduction of monologue

Date: _____

Complete the information with the words from the box.

tragic – one - laugh - thinking - speech – aloud – question – dialogue – himself – serious

Monologue

Definition

Monologue is an extended 1) _____ by one person.

Etymology

Mono, which means 2) _____, single or alone.
Logos, which means word, reason or plan.

Purpose

To express thought and ideas 3) _____.

Importance

It gives the audience or other characters access to what a particular character is 4) _____.

Famous monologue

“To be or not to be, that is the 5) _____”
From “Hamlet”
by William Shakespeare.

Antonym

6) _____.

Types of monologues

A. Soliloquy

A speech that a character gives to 7) _____.

B. Dramatic

It expresses character’s inner thoughts, ideas and feelings on a 8) _____ or painful topic.

C. Interior / Narrative

It’s a narrative technique that shows the character’s thoughts, so that the audience experience his internal thoughts. It can be funny or 9) _____.

D. Stand-up comedy

A comical speech that makes the audience 10) _____.