Ryan: What's wrong Frank?

Frank: Hi Ryan. Our dog, Spike, is lost.
Someone left the backyard gate open and he got out.

Ryan: Oh no. Let me help you find him

Frank: Thanks. I'm so upset right now.

Ryan: Have you called the local dog shelters?

Frank: Yeah, they haven't seen him. They said they would call me if they find him.

Ryan: Does he have any identification on him?

Frank: Yeah. He's wearing his dog tag.

Ryan: That's good. Should we make some flyers to post around the neighborhood?

Frank: My sister is doing that right now.

Ryan: How old is Spike?

Frank: He's two years old and he's a German shepherd.

Ryan: Yeah! I know what he looks like.

Frank: I'm just worried he was stolen or bitten by other dogs.

Ryan: I understand. He's part of your family.

Frank: Yeah, he's a big part of our family. We got him when he was a little puppy.

Ryan: Hey Frank! There he is! He's alright.

Frank: Spike! Come here, boy! He's scared but he's fine.
