

Traditional food in English speaking countries

I. What do they like to eat? Match food description with the people.

Australian people – British people – New Zealander people –
Canadian people – American people

1. We like fish and chips, cucumber sandwiches, carrot cake, tea and scones. We drink tea and eat scones in the afternoon. _____
2. We like to eat pancakes with maple syrup. Maple syrup comes from the sugar maple trees. They grow in our beautiful forests. _____
3. We like hot dogs, pizza, apple pie, hamburgers and chips. We call chips "French fries". We love fast food but we're trying to eat healthier food! _____
4. Our country is made up of two islands. It's in the Pacific Ocean. We like to eat banana sandwiches! _____
5. Our country is also a continent. We like to eat meat pies. They come in different sizes. You can eat them with some tomato sauce. _____

II. Match the food with the countries.

New Zealand – Canada – USA – Great Britain – Australia

Traditional food in English speaking countries

I. What do they like to eat? Match food description with the people.

Australian people – British people – New Zealander people –
Canadian people – American people

1. We like fish and chips, cucumber sandwiches, carrot cake, tea and scones. We drink tea and eat scones in the afternoon. _____
2. We like to eat pancakes with maple syrup. Maple syrup comes from the sugar maple trees. They grow in our beautiful forests. _____
3. We like hot dogs, pizza, apple pie, hamburgers and chips. We call chips "French fries". We love fast food but we're trying to eat healthier food! _____
4. Our country is made up of two islands. It's in the Pacific Ocean. We like to eat banana sandwiches! _____
5. Our country is also a continent. We like to eat meat pies. They come in different sizes. You can eat them with some tomato sauce. _____

II. Match the food with the countries.

New Zealand – Canada – USA – Great Britain – Australia

