

Superlative adjectives - Body systems

Date: _____

I. Complete the statements with the correct word from the box.

brain – liver – bones - skin

1. The _____ is the largest internal organ.
2. The _____ is the most important organ.
3. The _____ are the strongest parts of the body.
4. The _____ is the largest external organ in the human body.

RULES FOR FORMING SUPERLATIVE ADJECTIVES

One syllable adjective Add -est	One syllable adj. ending with a single consonant with a single vowel before it Double final consonant + est	Two syllables adj. ending with y Change y to i + est	One syllable adj. ending with a single consonant with a single vowel before it Double final consonant + est	Two or more syllables adjective most + adjective hardest shortest strongest fastest smallest longest	nicest largest	heaviest	biggest thinnest	most important most valuable

II. Put the adjectives in superlative form.

- | | | |
|-----------------|----------------|-----------------------|
| 1. big _____ | 5. large _____ | 9. important _____ |
| 2. strong _____ | 6. hard _____ | 10. valuable _____ |
| 3. heavy _____ | 7. fast _____ | 11. interesting _____ |
| 4. long _____ | 8. short _____ | 12. fantastic _____ |

III. Complete the statements with the correct superlative adjectives.

1. The small intestine is the _____ (long) organ in the human body.
2. The liver is the _____ (heavy) organ with an average of 1.6 kilograms.
3. I think that the heart is the _____ (important) organ of the circulatory system.
4. The tongue is the _____ (strong) muscle in the human body in proportion to its size.

IV. Create sentences comparing the given adjective and organ. Use superlative adjectives.

Example: liver / large (internal organ): The liver is the largest internal organ .

1. small intestine / long (organ in the human body)

2. tongue / strong (muscle in the body)

3. brain / important (organ in the human body)
