

Setting the scene 2 - Anecdote Date: _____

Read the anecdotes and complete them. Use the words from the box.

liked – found - smiled - was – went – tasted – made - spent

When I was a child, every night my father used to tell me an anecdote from his childhood. I _____ fascinated with the tales of him and his friend Jacob.

The last vacation, my family and I _____ to Acapulco. We _____ the whole day at the beach.

This story took place in my grandmother's house. My grandma Carlota always _____ a wonderful meal for me to enjoy. I don't know why the soup always _____ so good.

It was raining very heavily that night when the street lights went off and I was returning home from the park with my friend. We _____ out somebody was following us.

This story is about a boy who lived next door. Every day I used to sit on the edge of the curb just to see him. I _____ the way he _____.

Setting the scene 2 - Anecdote Date: _____

Read the anecdotes and complete them. Use the words from the box.

liked – found - smiled - was – went – tasted – made - spent

When I was a child, every night my father used to tell me an anecdote from his childhood. I _____ fascinated with the tales of him and his friend Jacob.

The last vacation, my family and I _____ to Acapulco. We _____ the whole day at the beach.

This story took place in my grandmother's house. My grandma Carlota always _____ a wonderful meal for me to enjoy. I don't know why the soup always _____ so good.

It was raining very heavily that night when the street lights went off and I was returning home from the park with my friend. We _____ out somebody was following us.

This story is about a boy who lived next door. Every day I used to sit on the edge of the curb just to see him. I _____ the way he _____.