

Sequence words - Anecdotes

Date: _____

I. When do we use the sequence words in the story? Put “B” for beginning, “M” for middle and “E” for end.

- |                          |                     |                         |
|--------------------------|---------------------|-------------------------|
| 1. By the end, ____      | 6. First, ____      | 11. To begin, ____      |
| 2. After that, ____      | 7. Finally, ____    | 12. One day, ____       |
| 3. Later, ____           | 8. In the end, ____ | 13. Then, ____          |
| 4. To start, ____        | 9. Today, ____      | 14. Next, ____          |
| 5. Once upon a time ____ | 10. Second, ____    | 15. In conclusion, ____ |

II. Put in order the events of the anecdote (1-6).

- A. ( ) After that, my mom confiscated their guns.
- B. ( ) One day I went into my bedroom and didn't find my beautiful doll.
- C. ( ) Then, I looked for her everywhere, but I couldn't find her.
- D. ( ) Next I started crying, and immediately my mother ran downstairs to see what was happening.
- E. ( ) Later I went out, and I saw my doll tied on the garden gate and my brothers shooting at her!
- F. ( ) In the end, that Christmas, under the Christmas tree, I found a wonderful, new doll!

III. Rewrite the story adding sequence words.

I had a great birthday yesterday. I met my friends at the shopping mall and they bought me a present. We had pizza at a café. We went to the cinema and saw a very funny comedy. I went home and I went to bed, tired but happy.

---

---

---

---

Sequence words - Anecdotes

Date: _____

I. When do we use the sequence words in the story? Put “B” for beginning, “M” for middle and “E” for end.

- |                          |                     |                         |
|--------------------------|---------------------|-------------------------|
| 1. By the end, ____      | 6. First, ____      | 11. To begin, ____      |
| 2. After that, ____      | 7. Finally, ____    | 12. One day, ____       |
| 3. Later, ____           | 8. In the end, ____ | 13. Then, ____          |
| 4. To start, ____        | 9. Today, ____      | 14. Next, ____          |
| 5. Once upon a time ____ | 10. Second, ____    | 15. In conclusion, ____ |

II. Put in order the events of the anecdote (1-6).

- A. ( ) After that, my mom confiscated their guns.
- B. ( ) One day I went into my bedroom and didn't find my beautiful doll.
- C. ( ) Then, I looked for her everywhere, but I couldn't find her.
- D. ( ) Next I started crying, and immediately my mother ran downstairs to see what was happening.
- E. ( ) Later I went out, and I saw my doll tied on the garden gate and my brothers shooting at her!
- F. ( ) In the end, that Christmas, under the Christmas tree, I found a wonderful, new doll!

III. Rewrite the story adding sequence words.

I had a great birthday yesterday. I met my friends at the shopping mall and they bought me a present. We had pizza at a café. We went to the cinema and saw a very funny comedy. I went home and I went to bed, tired but happy.

---

---

---

---