

Parts of the plot - Classic tales Date: _____

I. Read each extract and identify the part of the plot.

Conflict – Falling action – Exposition – Resolution – Rising action - Climax

1. A girl named Goldilocks goes for a walk in the forest.

2. Goldilocks finds three bowls of porridge, three chairs and three beds. She lies down and falls asleep.

3. Goldilocks stumbles upon a house and knocks on the door. No one answers, so he goes inside.

4. The three bears come home. They find empty bowls, the broken chair and Goldilocks sleeping in baby bear's bed.

5. Goldilocks runs out of the house and out of the forest, never to return again.

6. Goldilocks wakes up to find herself surrounded by bears.

II. Read each extract and write “E” for exposition, “C” for conflict or “R” for resolution.

1. The witch locked Rapunzel in a high tower with no doors and stairs. ____
2. A poor woodcutter and his wife had two children named Hansel and Gretel. ____
3. Jack and his mother were now very rich and they lived happily ever after. ____
4. Little red riding hood had learned her lesson and never spoke to strangers ever again. ____
5. The queen was wicked and hated Snow White. ____
6. The duckling decided to leave his home and went far away into the woods. ____
7. Goldilocks was a beautiful girl who had lovely golden hair. ____

Parts of the plot - Classic tales Date: _____

I. Read each extract and identify the part of the plot.

Conflict – Falling action – Exposition – Resolution – Rising action - Climax

1. A girl named Goldilocks goes for a walk in the forest.

2. Goldilocks finds three bowls of porridge, three chairs and three beds. She lies down and falls asleep.

3. Goldilocks stumbles upon a house and knocks on the door. No one answers, so he goes inside.

4. The three bears come home. They find empty bowls, the broken chair and Goldilocks sleeping in baby bear's bed.

5. Goldilocks runs out of the house and out of the forest, never to return again.

6. Goldilocks wakes up to find herself surrounded by bears.

II. Read each extract and write “E” for exposition, “C” for conflict or “R” for resolution.

1. The witch locked Rapunzel in a high tower with no doors and stairs. ____
2. A poor woodcutter and his wife had two children named Hansel and Gretel. ____
3. Jack and his mother were now very rich and they lived happily ever after. ____
4. Little red riding hood had learned her lesson and never spoke to strangers ever again. ____
5. The queen was wicked and hated Snow White. ____
6. The duckling decided to leave his home and went far away into the woods. ____
7. Goldilocks was a beautiful girl who had lovely golden hair. ____